We're having a great time here in Barcelona. We usually go swimming in the morning but it's cloudy and chilly today so we're doing what all tourists do. We're buying souvenirs. We're writing this postcard from a café at the moment. We're tired and we need some time to relax. Later we're taking the train to the city centre. We want to visit an art gallery. What about you? Are you having fun at work?

1. ☐

Not really. I mean, I don't mind appearing on TV but I do this job just because I like it not because I want to be famous.

2. ☐

Never. My husband is a good cook and he makes all the meals. Of course, he always watches me on TV but he usually makes some changes and adds one or two extra ingredients.

3. ☐

Well, at the weekends I also work for a famous restaurant in the city centre. It's hard work but I like it. At the moment I'm also writing a cookbook. It's called All about Fruit and Vegetables.

4. ☐

When I have some, I like reading books and going to the cinema. I also love shopping. Actually, I don't like watching TV or cooking. Cooking and television are just part of my job.

On my first day at university, something terrible happened. I was on an Information Technology course and my first class started at nine o'clock. I woke up very late and I had no time for breakfast, so I bought an orange juice from the university cafeteria. I ran into the room and everyone was at a computer. They all looked at me and I went to sit behind a computer, but I still had my orange juice. The teacher said, 'You can't drink that in here.' But as I walked across the room I tripped, and the orange juice went all over a classmate and her computer. Luckily, the computer was OK, and the classmate, Clara, saw the funny side of it. In fact, we're good friends now. Still, it wasn't a good start.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Clothes designer Stuart Weitzman has the record for the most expensive shoes. They are called the Cinderella Slippers and they cost $2 million. They have diamonds all over them and singer Alison Krauss wore them to the Oscars in 2004.

In 1998, four friends explored a silver mine in North San Diego. They found an old pair of jeans but thought nothing of it. Later, they discovered they were original Levi's and they were 115 years old! The owners sold them on the Internet for $60,000 and they became the most expensive jeans in the world.

4000 people from all over Australia are trying to make Australia's longest scarf. You can see 60 metres of the scarf at the Melbourne Craft Fair. But this is only part of it. The final scarf is going to be over 30 km long!
